

Punctuation Worksheet | Negative contractions

A contraction is a short way to combine two words by replacing some letters with an apostrophe ('). A negative contraction is formed when we shorten a verb with "not" (do not → don't).

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence below in its negative form using a contraction.

1. He will arrive on time.

He won't arrive on time.

2. They are playing outside.

3. He has done his chores.

4. I do want more cake.

5. We should leave now.

6. You could finish this later.
