

Adjectives Worksheet | Alliterations (phrases)

Alliteration is when two or more words start with the same sound. It makes sentences fun to say and hear! For example: "Silly seals" is alliteration because both words start with the "s" sound. "Thin tiger" is not alliteration because "th" and "t" make different sounds.

Instructions: Write an adjective that starts with the same letter as the noun.

1. _____ cake

2. _____ dolphin

3. _____ farmer

4. _____ chair

5. _____ pumpkin

6. _____ horse

7. _____ cookie

8. _____ dragon

9. _____ feather

10. _____ carpet
