

Adjectives Worksheet | Alliterations (phrases)

Alliteration is when two or more words start with the same sound. It makes sentences fun to say and hear! For example: "Silly seals" is alliteration because both words start with the "s" sound. "Thin tiger" is not alliteration because "th" and "t" make different sounds.

Instructions: Write an adjective that starts with the same letter as the noun.

1. _____ dog

2. _____ mountain

3. _____ apple

4. _____ house

5. _____ balloon

6. _____ garden

7. _____ ocean

8. _____ butterfly

9. _____ elephant

10. _____ tiger
