

Adjectives Worksheet | Adjectives before and after nouns

Remember, an adjective describes a person, place, or thing. It gives more details about how something looks, feels, sounds, or behaves. Adjectives can go after the noun (the boy is funny) or before the noun (the pretty girl).

Instructions: In each sentence below, circle the adjective and underline the noun it describes.

1. 1. The tall giraffe reached the tree.

2. 2. My brother is funny.

3. 3. She wore a shiny dress.

4. 4. The pizza was delicious.

5. 5. We saw a giant balloon.

6. 6. The dog looks tired.

7. 7. He has an old bike.

8. 8. The soup tastes spicy.

9. 9. We found a broken toy.

10. 10. The baby is sleepy.
