

Punctuation Worksheet | Commas and place names

When writing a city and its state, province, or country, always use a comma to separate them. For example, you write "Austin, Texas," "Toronto, Ontario," and "Paris, France." The comma helps make the location clear.

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence and insert commas where necessary.

1. My best friend lives in Denver Colorado.

2. We took a family trip to Rome Italy.

3. I want to visit Nashville Tennessee someday.

4. The Eiffel Tower is in Paris France.
