

Punctuation Worksheet | Direct address commas

When a name is at the beginning, put a comma after it, like "Tom, sit down." If the name is at the end, place a comma before it, as in "Sit down, Tom." For names in the middle, add commas on both sides, like "Sit down, Tom, please."

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence and insert commas around the names where necessary.

1. Yes Ella my workbook is in my bag.

2. Can we go to the park today Sam?

3. I think you're right Liam we should start early.

4. Emily can you help me with this?
