

Drawing conclusions means figuring something out for yourself.

To draw conclusions, you need to think about what makes the most sense.

Instructions: A parent or teacher should read the text to the student and then guide them in finding the correct answers. Circle the conclusion that makes the most sense.

The girl ran out of the house with her soccer ball.

This is probably because:

1. She's going to a basketball game.
2. She's going to play soccer with her friends.
3. She's going to ride her bike.

The man put on his running shoes and stretched his legs.

This is probably because:

1. He's going to take a nap.
2. He's going to run.
3. He's going to read a book.

The girl put on her glasses and opened her book.

This is probably because:

1. She's going to sleep.
1. She's going to read a book.
3. She's going to watch a movie on TV.
