

Reading Comprehension Worksheet | Cause and effect

The cause is why something happened.

The effect is what happened.

Instructions: A parent or teacher should help the students read the sentences below, then guide them in finding the correct answers. Draw a line to match each cause on the left with the likely effect on the right.

Cause

Effect

Maya's soccer coach taught her a new way to kick the ball. What happened because Maya learned a new way to kick the ball?

Maya went to the beach with her family.

Maya's team won their next game.

Jessy stayed up late reading her favorite book. What happened because Jessy stayed up late?

Jessy ate a big breakfast.

Jessy was very tired the next day.

Emma helped her mom bake pies for the school bake sale. What happened because Emma helped her mom bake pies?

The pies tasted delicious.

Emma went to the zoo with her friend.