

Punctuation Worksheet | Separating items with commas

Commas indicate a certain separation of words, phrases, or ideas in order to prevent misreading the writer's intended meaning. E.g. "I love reading, traveling, and listening to music."

Instructions: Fix the punctuation mistakes in these sentences by adding the missing commas. Write Correct if the sentence is already correct.

- _____ 1. We got home ate and left.
- _____ 2. She visited Paris, Rome, and Barcelona, during her European trip.
- _____ 3. My favorite colors are blue green and yellow.
- _____ 4. The teacher asked us to clear our desks take out a pencil and eraser and to get ready for the exam.
- _____ 5. They enjoyed a picnic in the park, complete with sandwiches fruits and drinks.
- _____ 6. After a long day at work, I sat on the couch relaxed and watched a movie.
- _____ 7. He ordered a large pizza with extra cheese pineapple mushrooms and olives.
- _____ 8. She hurriedly packed her suitcase grabbed her passport and headed to the airport.
- _____ 9. In my backpack, I packed my notebook my favorite pen a water bottle and some healthy snacks.
- _____ 10. During our road trip, we visited several cities, including Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and Phoenix.