

Verbs worksheet | Subject-verb agreement

A linking verb connects the subject of a sentence to a word that describes or renames it. Unlike action verbs, linking verbs do not show action. Instead, they help describe a state of being (the cake is tasty). Common linking verbs include: am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been.

Instructions: Circle the linking verb in each of the following sentence.

1. The sky is cloudy today.
2. My grandparents were very happy to see us.
3. This lemonade is too sour.
4. I am super excited for the field trip.
5. The book about wizards was interesting to read.
6. These brownies are warm and gooey.
7. The young puppy is so playful.
8. His shoes were too tight, and hurt to walk in.
9. The red apples at the store are fresh and juicy.
10. This water bottle is full and pretty heavy to carry.
11. She is by far the best player on the team.
12. We were so nervous before the test.
