

Reading Comprehension Worksheet | Sequencing

Sequencing means putting things in order, from first to last.

Instructions: Write the number 1, 2, 3 or 4 in the box beside what happened first, second, third or fourth. A parent or teacher can read along with the student, and help as needed.

1. What happened first, second, third, and fourth?

Amy arrived at the bakery and picked out a delicious pastry.
Amy paid for her pastry at the cash register.
Amy walked to her favorite bakery, enjoying the morning sunshine.
Amy then sat at a cozy table and enjoyed her pastry with a coffee.

2. What happened first, second, third, and fourth?

He got dressed, packed his backpack and headed downstairs.
Alex woke up early and brushed his teeth.
Alex then had breakfast with his sister, and left for school.
Alex waited at the bus stop and got on the bus right on time.

3. What words or clues help you understand the sequence of events in a story?
