

Parts of Speech Worksheet | Subordinating conjunctions

A subordinating conjunction connects a dependent clause to an independent clause. It shows a relationship between the two ideas, such as cause, time, condition, or contrast.

Instructions: Use a conjunction from the word bank to combine each pair of sentences into one complete sentence.

before      whenever      because      as      that      when although      while      as soon as      after      until      as if

1. I turned off the lights. I left the room.

---

2. We packed our bags. We were ready for the trip.

---

3. My little brother cried. He fell off his bike.

---

4. I listen to music. I do my homework.

---

5. We can't play outside. The rain stops.

---

6. My best friend helped me. I was struggling with my math homework.

---

7. The game ended. The players shook hands.

---

8. She smiled. She saw her puppy running toward her.

---

9. The students were quiet. The teacher started reading the book.

---

10. The dog barked loudly. The neighbor didn't hear it.

---