

Reading Comprehension Worksheet | Personification

Personification is when we give human qualities to things that are not human, such as an object, idea, or animal. For example: "The sun smiled down at us." (The sun cannot actually smile, but this makes it seem warm and friendly.)

Instructions: Circle the object being personified and underline the action that shows personification.

1. Sarah felt the book calling her to read it.

2. The fog crawled over the hills.

3. The river raced through the valley.

4. The last cookie begged to be eaten.

5. The cold air wrapped itself around me.

6. The lonely rock wept in the rain.

7. The flowers danced in the gentle breeze.

8. The mountain whispered ancient secrets.

9. Light conquered the darkness

10. The mirror reflected my worries.

