

Parts of Speech Worksheet | Prepositional phrase: adjective or adverb

Prepositional phrases provide additional details. They can act like an adjective and describe a noun, or act like an adverb and describe how, when, or where something takes place.

Instructions: Underline the prepositional phrase. Then, write whether it is being used as an adjective or an adverb.

adverb

1. He plays soccer after lunch.

_____ 2. The girl with the red hat is my cousin.

_____ 3. The books on the top shelf are heavy.

_____ 4. We traveled to the mountains last summer.

_____ 5. My brother rides his bike in the driveway.

_____ 6. The dog near the fence barked loudly.

_____ 7. The bakery across the street sells fresh bread.

_____ 8. They ate their picnic under the big tree.

_____ 9. The kids ran through the sprinklers on a hot day.

_____ 10. She found a letter from her best friend.

