

Punctuation Worksheet | Commas and quotation marks

Remember, the first word within quotation marks should always be capitalized. If the quotation marks start a sentence, the quote should end with a comma, before the ending quotation marks. "We got home very fast," said Michael's mom.

Instructions: Underline what each speaker says and add quotation marks and commas where needed.

1. "Please turn off the lights," dad said.
2. Be careful with that vase warned Julie as she left the house.
3. Can we go to the park after lunch? asked Lily.
4. Watch out for the slippery floor the man cautioned.
5. Remember to water the plants Franky said to George.
6. Did you finish your homework? our teacher asked.
7. Let's meet at the library Mike suggested to his study group.
8. Could you pass the salt? Sarah requested politely.
9. The nervous boy asked Will he be alright?
10. Don't forget to set the alarm Tom reminded his roommate.
11. Could I have another slice? asked Melanie.
12. Make sure to wear your jacket Emily said to her little brother.
13. The teacher said Today is October 10.
