

Punctuation Worksheet | Quotation marks

Quotation marks are special marks that look like this: “ ”. We use them to show exactly what someone is saying. Quotation marks go around spoken words and their punctuation.

Instructions: Add quotation marks and commas to the sentences as needed.

1. I'm going to bake cookies said Mia do you want to help?

"I'm going to bake cookies," said Mia, "do you want to help?"

2. Watch out! The floor is wet! shouted Dad.

3. Where did you buy that dress? asked Emma.

4. Can we play outside? asked Jake.

5. The weather is perfect today said Mom let's go for a hike.

6. My cat, Boo, is the best cat in the world said Michael.

7. Let's meet at the cafe suggested Anna.

8. Are you feeling better? asked the nurse.
