

Punctuation Worksheet | Quotation marks

Quotation marks are special marks that look like this: “ ”. We use them to show exactly what someone is saying. Quotation marks go around spoken words and their punctuation.

Instructions: Add quotation marks and commas to the sentences as needed.

1. We should leave now said Jamie if we want to catch the train.

“We should leave now,” said Jamie, “if we want to catch the train.”

2. Can you help me with my homework? asked Tim.

3. Mrs. White said Please take your seats and open your books.

4. I'm so excited for the concert tonight exclaimed Sarah.

5. What time does the movie start? asked Jenna.

6. I forgot my keys at home said Sam could you lend me yours?

7. Oh no! The cake is ruined! cried Emma.

8. Can you believe it? said John. We won the game!
