

Sentences Worksheet | Writing complex sentences

A complex sentence is a sentence that has one main thought (main clause) and an extra detail (dependent clause) connected together. For example: I will read a book. (after)

→ I will read a book after dinner. → After dinner, I will read a book.

Instructions: Expand each sentence below using the word in parentheses.

1. She will join us for dinner. (unless)

2. You need to call her. (before)

3. He went to the store. (although)

4. They will come over. (if)

5. She finished her homework. (once)

Rewrite the above sentences starting with the word in parentheses .

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____