

Verbs Worksheet | Auxiliary verbs (helping verbs)

Auxiliary verbs, or helping verbs, support the main verb to show tense, ask questions, or express possibility. Examples include be (is, am, are), do (do, does, did), have (have, has, had), and words like will, can, must, and should that show ability or necessity.

Instructions: Choose the correct auxiliary verb to complete each sentence.

1. The teacher _____ writing on the board. (is / am / does / are)
2. _____ your friend know how to swim? (is / am / do / does)
3. We _____ going to the zoo tomorrow. (is / am / does / are)
4. My dad _____ like loud music. (isn't / doesn't / aren't / don't)
5. _____ your cousins coming over today? (is / am / does / are)
6. The baby _____ crying loudly. (is / am / does / are)
7. Where _____ your brother go to school? (are / am / do / does)
8. The children _____ playing in the yard. (is / am / does / are)
9. _____ Sam and Jake enjoy playing soccer? (is / am / do / does)
10. Emma _____ eat vegetables every day. (isn't / doesn't / aren't / don't)
11. _____ your grandparents live nearby? (is / am / do / does)
12. My cat _____ like water. (isn't / doesn't / aren't / don't)