

Verbs Worksheet | Helping verbs - Could

Remember, could is used to express the past tense of "can," a conditional tone, and to indicate possibility.

Instructions: Next to each sentence below, write whether the word "could" expresses (A) a condition, (B) the past tense of "can," or (C) possibility?

- B 1. She could play the piano when she was younger.
- 2. I could ask my friend to help me with the project.
- 3. Could you help me clean my room?
- 4. I could eat spicy food.
- 5. We could go swimming if it's warm enough tomorrow.
- 6. I could have finished my homework earlier.
- 7. Could you tell me the time, please?
- 8. The team could win the game if they try their best.
- 9. Could you please bring me the book on the shelf?
- 10. My sister could ride her bike to school last year.
- 11. Could we have dessert after dinner?
- 12. This could be the best vacation ever!